Jhalil's Super Hero Spree

Jhalil is a 4-year-old living in Baltimore, MD who loves super heroes, the movie Toy Story, playing video games and the Baltimore Ravens. Unfortunately, when Jhalil was diagnosed with leukemia, it made it hard for him to keep up with all of his favorite activities. When Jhalil found out that Make-A-Wish® Mid-Atlantic would be granting his one true wish, he decided to have a super hero shopping spree!

Jhalil's day started off with VIP treatment, and he and his family were picked up and escorted around by a limo. He was able to buy super hero costumes, action figures and games, and even a new television so that he could watch his favorite super hero shows! Jhalil was finally able to have a day that centered around him for reasons other than his disease. His experience shows how wishes can enhance the human experience with hope, strength and joy.

JOIN THE WISH SOCIETY AND CREATE LASTING CHANGE FOR LOCAL CHILDREN, LIKE JHALIL.
